

Trojan Club Jamboree Honors Grid Stars Tonight LD

Football lettermen and numeral winners will desert the gridiron for the dance floor this evening at 8 o'clock for the annual football jamboree dinner-dance sponsored by the Trojan club at the Florentine gardens.

The athletes will be joined by members of the Trojaneers and the Trojan club for an evening of dancing and entertainment. Two complete floor shows will add to the merriment.

Music will be provided by Billy MacDonald and his Royal Highlanders and N.T.G., famous New York cabaret impressario, will be master of ceremonies. Members of the Rose bowl championship football team will be introduced by Coach Howard Jones and Ed Dempsey who will give short talks.

Co-chairmen of the affair, Alan Clark of the Trojaneers and Dr. William Harrison of the Trojan club, announce that most of the reservations have been taken and a large crowd is expected. The following list of players are requested by the Alumni office to submit their reservation this afternoon if they wish to attend:
