

All-U Handballers To Begin Second Round Tonight

The second round of play in the all-university handball tournament will get underway tonight at 7:30 and 8:30 o'clock when eight men battle in the men's gym.

Defending Champion Dick Steckel will get his first test of the year when he encounters Bernie OxHorn at 7:30 p.m. OxHorn should provide the champion with plenty of opposition due to his fine showing in recent practice games.

Fred Nicholas, No. 2 man on the varsity handball team, will also be showing his "stuff" for the first time tonight when he tangles with basketball star Ralph Vaughn. Both Nicholas and Steckel advanced to the second round with byes.

Ron Lubin, Trojan tennis ace, scored the surprise upset win of the tournament last week when he defeated Hal Hilton, handball team member, 21-17, 2-21, 21-11. Lubin will play the winner of the Bill Harvey-Bob Sanders match tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Al Mahaffay, another handball team member, will battle T. M. Leovy at 8:30 p.m. This match is expected to be a thriller due to the fine showing both men made in their initial tilts last week. Mahaffay won a close 21-16, 16-21, 21-9 victory over Bob Hawkins while T. M. Leovy defeated George Toley 21-8, 21-8.
