

Nicholas Takes Handball Lead

Fred Nicholas, No. 2 man on the varsity handball squad, last night defeated Ralph Vaughn in the third round of the all-U handball tourney. Scores of the games were 21-13, 21-19. Vaughn pressed Nicholas for the greater part of the two games, and both players executed spectacular shots.

Defending champion, Dick Steckel, playing for the first time this year, had little trouble in subduing Bernie OxHorn 21-7, 21-15. Steckel depended on a defensive game and forced OxHorn into making numerous mistakes.

Al Mahaffay, handball squad member, continued his winning ways by disposing of T. M. Leovy 21-17, 21-4. Mahaffay played a hard hitting game and kept Leovy constantly on the run. He will play Nicholas in a fourth round match.
